TERRITORIAL ITEMS OF INTEREST CONDENSED.

By Jan 1 the Southern Pacific of Mexico will be operating its train into Tepic, the capital of the territory of Tepic, according to L. H. Long, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific of Mexico.

The Sunset Limited train de luxe is to be put on the S. P. on December 6, between New Orleans and San Francisco. By the new time table, close connection is made between all main line trains and those on the Tucson-Nogales and Benson-Nogales lines of the western Mexico system of the Southern Pacific company, both from and to the main line trains.

Hayden is on the boom. Pay day put everybody to the good. Over three hundred thousand dollars was placed in circulation. Stop and consider how much business can be evolved from the judicious use of this amount of money per month.

Harvey Johnson, of Douglas, proprietor of the Reay and Johnson Livery Stable and a colored hostler were violently thrown and dragged along the street by one of their horses while attempting to change the horses bit.

There is talk, both outside and inside of railroad offices of the desirability and possibility of changing the operating time on the Southern Pacific from Pacific to Mountain time, the latter being an hour later than the former.

That Douglas will be provided with a new and modern depot before the coming of the Rock Island train which will follow the completion of the Tucson extension of the El Paso & Southern is the belief of some of the local railroad men there and the hope of the citizens.

Holly, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Talbot of Glendale, was severely injured Monday evening in getting his hand badly torn in the chain and sprocket wheel of a bicycle. The third and fourth fingers were severed from the hand and the second broken and may have to be amputated.

Norman Cheshire, recently arrested at Phoenix on a charge of horse stealing in Oklahoma, and returned to that state in custody, has returned to Phoenix, freed of all charges in Oklahoma.

At Yuma, the rooms of Dr. A. John and wife in the Morretti block were burglarized Sunday afternoon between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock and $150 in money taken. The money had been drawn from the bank by the doctor on Saturday and was placed in a dresser drawer in their suite of rooms.

Tucson is now one of the greatest shipping points for tungsten, one of the rarest and most valuable metals in the mechanic arts in the world. A carload of tungsten ore, taken from the mine of the Cody-Dyer Arizona Mining and Milling company near Tucson, now lies in the warehouse of the Southern Pacific railroad, sacked and ready for shipment. It will be loaded for shipment to Hamburg, Germany, where it will be acidized and rendered ready for use in commerce and the arts.

E. J. Anderson, plant superintendent of the Arizona Telephone and Telegraph company, is in Phoenix to start the reconstruction of the toll line between Phoenix and Prescott, whereby the line is to be shortened thirty-five miles.

Three miles of six-inch water pipe is to be ordered by the Phoenix water department within the next few days to be used in the extension and enlargement of water mains in the various parts of the city.

F. M. Cooper, aged 66 years, has passed away at Phoenix, as the result of heart failure. Cooper, born in Indiana, was a pioneer of Arizona. He leaves a wife and two children.

Mr. D. M. Thomas, the artist, had his collar bone broken by being thrown from a wagon near Bellemont last week. The whistle tree was broken by the horses kicking, and as they started to run he was thrown out into a pile of rocks.

Dr. A. G. Schnabel, former bacteriologist of the city of Tucson, and recently appointed by the board of regents to conduct the course in bacteriology at the University of Arizona, delivered the first of a series of nine lectures on the History Derivation and Classification of Bacteria and Vegetable Micro-organisms.

W. D. Fisk, Republican candidate for state treasurer, has joined the state ticket of Republican candidates now touring the northern part of the state, though he is still wearing bandages as the result of injuries received from the overturning of an automobile. R. J. Barron is also recovering.

Kenney Jullif, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jullif, died at the family home in Yuma. He had been sick for only two or three days with membranous croup.

Governor Wells and the state candidates opened their campaign with a large meeting at Holbrook Tuesday night and their itinerary includes the following meetings: Winslow, Nov. 15; Flagstaff, Nov. 16; Williams, Nov. 17; Kingman, Nov. 18; Jerome, Nov. 20; Prescott, Nov. 21; Mesa, Nov. 22.

E. C. and E. I. Kolb, brothers, of Grand Canyon, who set out September 8 to run the rapids of the Colorado river, from Green river, Wyo., to Needles, Arizona, are now at Hell Hole. They have run all the rapids except one. They say they experienced many thrilling adventures, and are both in good health.

Joseph Sobie, timber foreman for the Miami Copper company, was badly cut and bruised about the head and face and probably received internal injuries as a result of a cave-in at the Miami mine Thursday. His left foot was badly crushed and a small bone of the ankle was fractured.

Near Solomonville, little Margaret Garcia, the three-year-old daughter of Thomas Garcia, of San Jose, fell into and was drowned in the San Jose canal.

The body of the unidentified man found recently in the Salt River canal after he had been dead for three days will be exhumed for purposes of further attempt at identification and for an autopsy. It is believed that the man is Frank Ferguson.

W. E. Woodmansee, fireman at Bowie was badly burned about his face while trying to light the headlight on his engine. He has gone to Los Angeles for treatment.

The Copper Camp, which Lyons has edited at Ray, and had published in Phoenix, will now be printed at the home establishment. Terence Healey, who has worked in nearly every printing office in Arizona, is employed by Lyons.

While a party of young people in which Misses Pansing, Walton and Shontz and Messrs. Albrecht, Randall and Pansing, were riding out in the hills near Morenci, Miss Shontz was accidentally shot in the right fore arm, inflicting a slight but painful flesh wound.

During Fair week the Arizona Eastern railroad brought eight thousand and three hundred and eighteen people into Phoenix and carried two thousand nine hundred out.

R. M. Tyler, postmaster at Webb, Cochise county, was kicked by a horse, Thursday morning, the animal's hoof striking him at the side of the right eye. It is not thought that the eye has been injured though it is swollen so that the eye is closed.

Delegate to Congress Ralph H. Cameron now has a namesake in the Sulphur Spring valley. Ralph H. Parker, a boy of eight years, was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Parker Sept. 18 and named in honor of the delegate of whom the parents are great admirers and friends.

W. J. Nichols of the valley shipped on Saturday five dozen game chickens to a party in El Paso, who will in turn ship them to friends in Old Mexico. Mr. Nichols is making a business of shipping game chickens of his own raising and is finding it a very profitable industry.—Yuma Sun.

The Pima County Fair Commission was found to have come $250 short of paying for itself, but it was unanimously decided to pay all cash premiums in full, that no stain be left on the escutcheon of the first Pima County Fair.

John Mo Southern Pacific freight conductor, who is charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon Policeman Tom Plunkett, as found guilty in the district court at Tucson.

Nine carloads of square sets arrived in the Tucson yards one day this week. They are being shipped to numerous properties in eastern and southeastern Arizona for timbering purposes. Several carloads of 14-inch iron casings were also received.

At Mesa, an unidentified tramp was found dead in the stock yards by some of his companions. A coroner's jury found that the man came to his death by the "white line" route. He had been drinking alcohol, slightly diluted, and was unable to stand the strain.

J. L. Larrieu, nominee for sheriff on the Socialist ticket, was in town yesterday, having returned from a short trip to the coast. Johnny will lead his ticket, and is considered a disturbing factor in the fight for that office. He left yesterday morning on the Borro for Huachuca siding, and will later go to Tepic, Mexico, on a short business trip.—Benson Press.

Phil Eckhart, who has been employed on the Globe papers for several years, is now at his ranch in St. David for a short vacation.

News comes from Swansea that the Clara Consolidated mine and smelter closed down on the 15th, indefinitely. It is stated that the company was unable to pay off its obligations to its men in full, but gave the married men $50 each and the single men $25 each, in cash, with due bills for the remainder of the amounts due them. These they are privileged to sell if they can find buyers. The closing of the Clara does not come as a surprise but rather as a disappointment.

Finding his fiancée in the Crocker street hospital just recovering from an anesthetic after an operation for appendicitis upon the day set for their wedding, Wm. Alexander of Tucson, became the husband of Miss Lucylo Nugent of Los Angeles. The husband returned to his business in Tucson immediately.—Los Angeles Herald.

Four head of cattle were killed and 250 scattered all over the surrounding country in a stampede of the herd of Barnette Robles which took place at the Tucson stockyards of the Southern Pacific railroad company Monday.

At Douglas, A. M. Williams, the aviator while engaged in making a flight last week, fell from a distance of eighty feet after the collapse of one side of his machine. Williams was slightly bruised and will be able to get about within a few days.

L. N. Jesunofsky, for seven years section director of the Arizona weather bureau, with headquarters in Phoenix, has been relieved of the duties of the office and will be reassigned to a station in the east or middle west, the identity of which has not yet been revealed.

Bishop Atwood dedicated the new Episcopal edifice recently completed in Mesa.

As a result of a hunting accident which occurred Monday near Congress Junction on the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad, R. M. (Fritz) de Gex, a well known mining man, is in the Sisters' hospital at Phoenix, suffering with a wound in the left eye, which will probably culminate in the loss of the sight of that orb.

Frank Rose, one of the prisoners who has been working on the territorial bridge at Tempe has been paroled. Rose was sent up for six years from Pima county on the charge of robbery. He has served about two years of that time. He was regarded a model prisoner and it was on that account that he was given a chance to reform.

The planting of sugar beets at Tempe has been begun in good shape. Last week there were forty acres planted on the O'sen ranch south of that town.

That over 300 carloads of cattle have been shipped into the Salt River valley within the past four or five weeks over the Santa Fe and that many more are coming from the northern sections of Arizona, was the statement made by Paul H. Hastings, freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad. For the most part these cattle are what are known as "feeders."

An inspection of the El Paso and Southwestern construction work along the entire Tucson extension from Fairbanks is being completed by Chief Engineer J. L. Campbell of El Paso, his chief assistant M. E. Anderson, and H. Jones, chief engineer of location, whose headquarters are in the city of Benson.

From Wednesday's Daily

Attorney Francis M. Hartman, assistant counsel of the S. P. Co., and J. D. Matthews, also of Tucson were in the city today in the interests of the trustee sale of the Johnson, Iraragon and Northern railroad, under a $27,000 judgement against that company held by the S. P. Co. The property was sold to Mr. Matthews.

W. G. Gilmore left today for Bisbee on legal business and incidentally to look after his political fences which are in excellent shape.

J. B. Hand of Turner was a Tombstone visitor today.

The time for hunting deer expires December 1st. A number of local sportsmen have been scouting the hills for venison but report same scarce. Harry Macia and "Red" Gannon found plenty of tracks near the Charleston hills and will make another trip to that section before the season expires.

The board of supervisors completed their labors today and passed upon a large volume of business incident to the primary election and provisions for the coming general election.

Jack Pratt, the expert paper hanger and painter left today for Benson to complete a contract for work in that city.

C. I. Cummings is in Benson in the interests of his candidacy for supervisor.

The board of supervisors appointed A. W. Howe as Cochise ranger, vice Harry Wheeler resigned. This makes Howe captain of his own army of rangers, with commission that covers all of Cochise county. Captain Howe will continue to make his headquarters in Tombstone. He is an experienced official and his selection is a good one.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Flach, in stead of Mrs. Rockefeller as announced Sunday. A missionary program will be given. All ladies are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Arizona's Seventh

Fair Costs $65,000

Arizona's Seventh Fair cost $2500 more than its receipts, including the annual appropriation of $15,000 from the territorial treasury. Approximately $65,000 was spent on the fair, including improvements and the total receipts were in the neighborhood of $62,500. About $50,000 was paid for admittance to the grounds and grand stand; $2500 was realized from concessions and the remainder of the $62,500 came from entrance fees, stall rents, exhibitors' tickets and various other sources.

Tombstoner Has

Narrow Escape

Melvin Swain met with an accident yesterday afternoon which came near costing his life but fortunately he escaped without serious injury. While riding his motorcycle to the Mabel Copper company's mines in the Dragones and when out of town a few miles the front fork of his motorcycle broke precipitating the rider heading about 30 feet into a sand wash with such force as to render him unconscious for nearly two hours. Al Stanger of the O. K. Corral, driving to town from the mines saw the broken motorcycle and the road plowed up for some distance by the impact, and the prostrate form of the young man over 30 feet from the roadside. He revived him, as best he could, hurriedly bringing him home. An examination developed no bones broken but many bad contusions and general soreness from the remarkable experience and sudden plunge to almost within the jaws of Death. He is resting easy today and able to tell of his hairbreath escape.

Frank Rose, one of the prisoners who has been working on the territorial bridge at Tempe has been paroled. Rose was sent up for six years from Pima county on the charge of robbery. He has served about two years of that time. He was regarded a model prisoner and it was on that account that he was given a chance to reform.

Four Murder Suspects

Held at Ft. Huachuca

Four arrests have been made, all Mexicans, and the suspects held at the fort charged with the murder of Pedro Rivera. It is thought, however, that the two men chiefly responsible for the murder escaped and officials are warned to be on the lookout for them.

Seismograph at Tucson

Records Violent Quake

An earthquake of great intensity, which center was probably in Southern Mexico or South America, was recorded Friday night by the seismograph at the United States Magnetic Observatory eight miles east of Tucson.

The reading of the seismograph, taken by Director Weed, shows that the earthquake began at 11:29 o'clock and the vibration continued for 40 minutes. The maximum movement of the earth here was three eighths of an inch.

The seismograph registered faintly the earthquake of Thursday night which shook Europe, causing great damage to ancient buildings and rendering the people panic-stricken with fear.

Valuable Cochise

Silica Location

A large number of claims, covering a ledge of silica in the Whetstone mountains in the vicinity of McIlwain Springs have been located by Alfred Paul for Dr. I. D. Kinkadee of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company.

A spur track is to be built from the El Paso and Southwestern extension out to the claims and the silica will be shipped to Cananea where it will be ground and made into fire brick or lining the reverberatory furnaces.

The big ledge of silica has been known to prospectors for many years, but not dreamed it had any immediate value.—Citizen.

Republicans Fill

Two Vacancies

The Cochise Republican Central Committee have been obliged to fill two vacancies created on their ticket, resignations having been filed by John Gleason of Glenwood, for state senate, and Thos. McChesney of Benson for the state assembly.

H. M. Wood of Bisbee has been named to fill the vacancy of Mr. Gleason and Frank Myers, immigration commissioner will be placed on the ticket in the place of Mr. McChesney.

Folk Addresses Large

Audience at Clifton

This is a wire received from Clifton. It looks good for Democratic success. "At a Democratic rally and banquet held in Prettyman's Opera House last night, Gov. Jos. Folk was the guest of the Clifton Democratic Club and for an hour held his audience spellbound as he dwelt upon the importance of a Democratic victory in first state election in Arizona. This morning Gov. Folk dictated following message to voters of Arizona: "I would impress upon Democrats of this new state, the importance of the coming election, not only to Arizona, but to the Nation. There is a battle going on in the land today between Progressivism and Reactionism; between government for the people, and government for a privileged class. The Arizona constitution prepared by Democrats, represents progressivism and the Democratic party here stands for the progressive ideas of the country. The defeat of the Democratic candidates or their election by a slim majority, would encourage the reactionaries all over the land and discourage those who are fighting for equality of opportunity for all. An overwhelming victory for Democracy here would do much to shape the issues for the great contest of 1912."

Fred W. Morrison of Los Angeles will deliver the memorial address at the Elks Memorial services, at Kingman, on the 3rd of December. C. G. Krook will deliver the eulogy.

From the frequency with which the republican candidates for office have turned turtle on the progressive questions they must imagine they are in an automobile race says the Yuma Sun.

Down in Georgia they are having trouble to keep jurors from drinking up all the evidence in cases of violation of the prohibition laws of that state.

No matter how excited you become over politics, don't forget to do your Christmas shopping early.

Poker is not gambling, according to the decision of the city authorities of Ciudad Juarez, across the border from El Paso. Consequently the town is raking in gringo money by the bushel, as it did before the wave of reform became effective.

November 30 will be Thanksgiving. You may not have been blessed according to your own desire, but, as the Williams News says, surely there has something occurred in the past year for which you can earnestly return thanks.

Imbued with the progressive spirit of the times, the furtherance of which the Democratic party is devoted, and pledges a progressive, honest, impartial and beneficial administration.

Within ten minutes after landing in New York a Toledo citizen had been robbed twice. New York may keep that record for speed as long as it likes.

A new flying machine is called a biplane. If that means a double parachute for unexpected descents it fills a much felt want.

After holding their first election under the direct primary law, the people like it. It comes very nearly being an answer to the question, "Shall the people rule?" and the is in the affirmative.

"I can do more for Arizona in two years than any other man in the United States senate could do in twenty years," shouts Ralph Cameron, in his frantic appeals for votes. Come down Ralph, your superiority is too dazzling for long endurance. Now in the names of all the gods at once, upon what meat doth this our leaser feed that he has grown so great?—Douglas Internationalist.

The last Thanksgiving proclamation that will ever be issued in Arizona under the territorial government is out, Gov. Richard F. Sloan having designated Nov. 30 as the official day of Thanksgiving.

In favor of Sloan's proclamation the day should be observed with thank in recognition of the manifold blessings granted us during the year, and especially for the gift of statehood which awaits our acceptance.

The county democratic campaign is in perfect harmony with the declaration of principles promulgated by the state committee and is a progressive document which the voters will approve on December 12 by the election of the democrats pledged to carry out its promises.

All doubt that Coconino would endorse progressive principles and the men that support them was dispelled by the enthusiastic reception to the Democratic senatorial and state candidates at Flagstaff Wednesday. A representative audience that packed the court house proved by its presence and applause, that no eleventh hour repentance could fool the people into an endorsement of republican standpatism.

The new president of Mexico finds himself greatly hampered at the very beginning of his official career by conditions that would appal a less stout and determined heart. With thousands of his people in arms against any government that could be created, with hundreds of thousands more unemployed and in need of the actual necessities of life, with thousands who are employed showing a disposition to strike for higher wages and many of them preaching a propaganda against all foreign, with the wheels of industrialism most frightfully clogged, with millions of dollars of war claims to be adjudicated and settled, and with plotters ever around and about him the path of the little man of destiny appears most thickly strewn with thorns.—El Paso Times.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
Absolutely has no substitute

Many mixtures are offered as substitutes for Royal. No other baking powder is the same in composition or effectiveness, or so wholesome and economical, nor will make such fine food.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
